Oilers Play Brilliantly to Win Opener From Wichita, 4-3—Boehler in Fine Form

THOMPSON'S SINGLE IN NINTH BREAKS UP GREAT MOUND DUEL

Lelivelt's Whole Team Displays Brand of Baseball That Thrills Team's Followers in Winning Fifth Victory in a Row—Blakesly's Home Run With Two on Prevents the 1921 Champions Being Shut Out—Karl Black Due to Make Local Debut Monday Afternoon.

By B. A. BRIDGEWATER.

Three rousing cheers! That's exactly how we felt about the Oilers after watching that opened with Wichita at the home lot yesterday after-

Giving an exhibition of game, aggressive baseball that kept the overflow Sunday crowd in a continuous thrill from the opening until the exciting ninth-inning finish, "Smiling Jack" Lelivelt's fighting crew conquered the 1921 Western league champions from Wichita in the first game of the series, 4 to 3, and thereby went into a tie with Joe Berger's clan for third place.

were the outstanding features there is pienty of glory to be liberally distributed to all hands. First of all, the whole feam was literally "ail broke out" with pep and scrappiness. The boys played the game to a fare-you-well. In the pinches they performed brilliantly behind Boehler, a pair of fast and timely double plays twice shutting off threatening Wichita railies. The only misplay charged to an Oller was when "Old Reitable" Yank Davis dropped an easy fly by Berger in his haste to heave the ball to second in an effort for a double play.

George McGinnis scintillated

George McGinnis scintillated about shortstop for five innings before a bad bounder in the sixth, off Blakesiy's bat, injured a finger tip and forced him from the game. Mac made a wonderful play in the third when he robbed Smith of a hit by spearing a liner on the first bounce and throwing out the batsman at first. Luke Stuart who relieved McGinnis played well and with an ease and grace that emphasized to the fans how good the team must be right now when a man like Stuart can be kept out of the regular line-up. A Big Day for Many.

Herschel Bennett, whose work on the road trip was one of the brightest features of the Oller Invasion, continued his stellar work. He rapped out a double and a pair of singles, stole two bases and laid down one perfect sacrifice hit. Frank Thompson performed faultlessly in the field, connected for a pair of pinch singles that had an important bearing on the final outcome, and was robbed of two twobase hits by two sensational catches by Centerfielder Smith of Wichita against the scoreboard. Yank Davis peled two doubles and a single, Lyman Lamb failed to hit safely, but his pretty work in the field was metable. Manager Lelivel's bat was hushed, but he handled fifteen chances in the field once starting a double play at a most critical moment. It was a pretty single to right by Frank Thompson in the ninth that sent the winning run over the pan and broke up the pitching duel between George Boehler and "Lefty" Sellars. Boehler had singled and moved into the scoring position at second on Bennett's perfect sacrifice.

more than a coloreal punching bag. If he could beat a couple of men like Brennan and Wills, for instance, nobody would doubt his right to make the public pay championship prices to see him in a ring with Dempsey again.

Willard Is Thirty-five Years Old—Possibly Older.
Sullivan lost the championship at 32, Corbett at 31, Fitzsimmons at 34, Burns at 27, Jeffries retired at 29 and returned to lose his title at 35, Johnson lost it at 37, Willard at 32, From this list it is evident that his men last longer in the ring than and returned to lose his title at 35, and returned to lose his title at 35, sits from this list it is evident that big men last longer in the ring than simal men. Willard at the biggest of all the big men, and he might outlast the whole bunch if he was actively engaged in fighting and appeared in the ring at least four times a year. But with two fights in the past seven years there's no way to figure him anything but a has-been unless he proves he isn't.

Dempsey, being without a given in the past seven years there's no way to give him better the past seven without a has-been unless he proves he isn't.

cally out of a lob. He can't be blamed for his wildingness to fight Carpentier abroad.

Manager Kearns sees Carpentier and better than when he fought Dempsey becout, of course, Carpentier would need to be a lot bigger to have even man in his class, a corking boxer and a desperate puncher. But neither Carpentier nor sny other man living can give a fellow like Dempsey 15 pounds and a beating.

Benny Leonard's Fourth of July match is to be with Rocky Kansas. Whenever Benny fights Kansas the crowd can be sure of seeing a fancy boxing exhibition. Benny can outpoint Kansas any time, with ease. So he does it, Mixing with Kansas is foolish, so Benny doesn't mix. Fighting Kansas, it seems, is a lot softer than fighting Lew Tendler, It's softer to fight White, Dundee, or any one of a dozen others.

Leonard tightse Tendler or not. But Benny has made many statements to the effect that he doesn't care to hold the title any longer than be can defend it by meeting and legitimate challenger.

If there's a doubt in Benny's mind that he can beat Tendler, at the lightweight limit which Tendler makes easily, it's up to Leonard to make his promises good or retire. He ought to fight Tendler, win if he can't win acknowl-

Jess Willard may have a nankering for the heavyweight title, and may be in training and full of hope, as reports eay. But however anxious willing Dempsey, the public isn't going to show any great enthusiasm over a Willard Dempsey hatch unless Willard has been out of sight since which when he whipped Johnson, Ho was a he-man in those days.
